

WOUTER VERMEYLEN (MANAGER, PRODUCER)

Founding member Wouter Vermeulen (1976) started as arts centre Vooruit's building manager in 2001. In 2004 he joins event bureau 'Les Nuits Tout Courts', an organization putting itself to the task of organizing the parties the organizers always dreamt of going to. After Vermeulen's arrival, the organization started collaborating with Ghent's Time Festival and SMAK. Later on, it created events for Vooruit, Museum Dr. Guislain and NTGent.

In the same year, the same team founded the organization 'Handelsreizigers in Ideeën' which devises customized exhibitions, campaigns and events inspired by the arts and sciences.

In 2011 Wouter founded Yesplan, a spin-off of arts centre Vooruit that develops planning software for the cultural sector. He currently still sits as the organization's CEO.
